Claiborne Harris married Nancy Sutherland in Clark County, Ky. May 16, 1816.

Note. The name, Claiborne Harris appears in North Carolina at an early date--see N.C. Archives, Vol. 22, pps. 165, 376, and the name Clayborn Rice appears in the early records of Goodland Co., Va.--see Wm. and Mary Quarterly, Vol. 26(15), pg. 80*, which would seem to bear out the tradition that Robert Harris, father of Col. William Harris of Henover Co., Va. married Mary (Claiborne) Rice, widow and daughter of Col. William Claiborne of Virginia.

* also Virginia Magazine, Vol. 23, Page 81.

Note by Mrs. Charles E. Davis, Smithfield, Va.

The fact that Wm. Harris Jr., had wife, Elizabeth before marriage to Henrietta, is borne out by my father's records. My great-grandmother was Elizabeth Day, daughter of William Harris, and his wife. She is evidently the child of this former marriage and bears her mother's name, Elizabeth. She married John Andrews of Spottsylvania Co., Va., May 16, 1792. My father said in his notes that she was forty years old, when she married. The children of this marriage were:-- John-Samuel-William-Lewis- Thomas (killed in last war with England)-Emilia (Emily).

Emilia (Emily-Amelia) Andrews married Richard Harfield Timberlake, Nov. 26, 1827. She was born, Oct. 18, 1800. Children of this Marriage, John-Richard-Thomas-Elizabeth (died very young).

John S. Timberlake married May 1, 1860 Caroline Virginia Castlen. Children:-- Georgia Virginia-Irene Bradford-Richard Castlen-Leila Castlen-Thomas Andrews-Richard Harfield-Eliza Goodwin-Cassius Castlen.

Note. I have all of the Wills & Deeds of the Harris Family in both Isle of Wight & Southampton County. Can run this line back to 1619. This was done some years ago in an effort to prove the ancestry of a daughter of one of these Harris men, not mentioned in his will, but son-in-law a witness to same.

Note.

Blunt. If your ancestor is descended from Elizabeth Blunt, and not Mary Foster (the latter very doubtful) then you have a splendid line to run back. Where did you get the idea of this Mary being Elizabeth Nelms? Did I do that?

MRS. D. L. CHAPMAN, SR.

SMITHFIELD, VIRGINIA

My dear Mrs. Chapman:

Recently you sent me a circular about your Southampton book, but I think I have practically all the information I need from Southampton and I'm desperately anxious for some that I think may be in Isle of Wight, but I haven't been able to find it from your abstracts, nor from the copies in Richmond. You have worked IofW so thoroughly, perhaps you have the information I want already in your file. If so, please let me know, with the cost; if not, and you think it's worth while to search - if there's anything left for you to search! - let me know what your charge would be.

My Benjamin Harris made his will in Southampton 7-7-1771; it was probated in Sohn 4-10-1774. (I want to find his parents- and grandparents, etc.) To his son Benjamin he left "the plantation whereon he (son) now lives, and after his death to my grandson West Harris x if he dies without heirs to his next younger brother, etc." This sounds to me like it might have been the land Benj. Sr. inherited, which he was passing on to his oldest son, to be kept in the family. There is a deed of record in Chatham Co., N.C. for land sold to Benjamin Harris of Northampton Co., N.C.-deed dated 1772, and covers the land on which Benj. Jr. lived and died-1821. It's possible that the land on which he lived in 1771 was in No'hn, N.C. but this might have been part of the land that his father bought in IofW in 1745. (IofW D.B. 7, 1744-1747, P. 200) from John Gwaltney. The metes and bounds are not given in the deed, which refers to patent granted Gwaltney which describes it as "200 A. x x in IofW Co., on South side of the Flatt Swamp on the south side of Nottoway River." Later Benj. Sr. bought land from John Person in So'hn, which he left to his son Hardy Harris, and land from Boykin (in So'hn), described as on south side of Flatt Swamp, which he left to his son Michael. This seems to be all the land he had, as he left his son Absolom 40 £ to buy him some land. (Absolom is my Rev. ancestor).

Tradition (or perhaps more correctly information, or misinformation) says Benjamin's father was Henry, son of Edward (d. 1734). I haven't found any proof of this, nor of the report that Edward had five children, including Henry and Thomas, not mentioned in his will. John Gibbins (d. 1725) left legacies to several Harris boys, including Henry and Thomas, the latter identified as "son of Edward". Thos. Harris (d. 1729) named as one of his executors "my brother Henry Harris". Is this the only proof that they were the sons of Edward 1734, or could they have been the children of Edward and Martha Harris who d. 1677, est. admn. by Geo. Hardy "on behalf of the orphans" Benjamin had a son Hardy, who may have been named for Gr. ma-M Martha Hardy if she was).

There was a Henry Harris who got a grant of land in 1725-30(?), which was sold in 1772 by Henry Harris and Nathaniel Harris (Later of Warren N.C.)-land on south side of Flatt Swamp. Edward 1734 left his son Jacob land on south side Flatt Swamp.

All of this is probably unnecessary, because what I really want to know is whether there are any other references in IofW records of my Benjamin, -especially any indicating his parentage, and/or where he came from if he was not a native of IofW. West Harris went to Granville Co., N.C., and Benjamin's dad might have gone there too, or, more likely, to No'hn. However, Benj. mar. Faithy Smith, dau. of Lawrence and Jane Smith (Lawrence's will IofW da. 6-10-1746; pro. 1748 or 9); Jane's will So'hn 1757-1758), and Faithy's brothers Joseph, Flood and Lawrence Smith all lived in No'hn, N.C., which may account for Benj. Jr. being there in 1772. It was not mentioned in either will, but ~~xxxx~~ Faithy ~~xxxx~~ inherited land from her parents in No'hn Co. which might have been the land on which Benj. Jr. was living in 1771.

I'm also anxious to know Jane Smith's maiden name. Some claim she was a Reagan, dau. of Francis, who sold land in IofW to Lawrence in 1725 (?), but I've found no proof; and Lawrence bought land in 1717 in Surry, and Lawrence and Jane sold this land in 1722 to Wm. Bynum. In Nov. 1757 Wm Bynum wit. Jane's will in So'hm, and I've thought perhaps he was her brother. Can you give me any help on this?

Incidentally, there's some "circumstantial evidence" for the story that Benjamin's grand pa (or maybe uncle) was Edward 1734, or closely related. My grandfather born in 1813 (in Ga.) was so much like Isham Green Harris, Ex. Gov. of Tenn. and U.S. Senator) - whose line is proved back to West Harris of Granville, - that they were mistaken for each other by people who knew them well.

But don't let any of my comments distract you if you think or know I'm on the wrong track, - just say so. I'll take anybody that ~~can~~ left proof he was my Benjamin's father and/or grandfather.

Is there any record of the names of the children of Edward and Martha- 1677, and proof that Edward had five children not mentioned in his will, with their names?

If you can give me some or all of this information from your records, please let me know the cost. If you do not already have the information, let me know what you will charge for the search. If you make the search, I do not mean for you to try to find the proof of the above comments if they are not relevant. I just want to find "Grandpa" and Grandma, if possible. 'Scuse this too long letter. Didn't mean to take up so much of your time.

Yours very truly,

Martha Harris

Have you tried to sell our libraries
your abstracts?
The Atlanta Library has your IofW abstracts and they should get the Southampton records -
Rhodes Memorial is the State Archives has one volume of IofW, but I don't have much luck they have feeding money to pay for others.
